RE: Account: Circuit City Stores Inc
Claimant: Robert Wittenberg
Date of Loss: 8/15/2008
Claim Number: YLB66384AP

Dear Robert Wittenberg,

We have carefully considered your claim, and based upon the information obtained to date, it is our opinion that our account would not be held responsible for this accident. The following is the reason behind our denial:

That given the facts of the loss, the store was not made aware of the damages after the initial installation. More importantly the procedure to do the installation would not require to pry the dash unit out.

Therefore, we must respectfully decline payment of your claim. If you disagree with this opinion then you can file a small claims court in your local county court.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at the number below.

Sincerely,
